College/University that you currently attend:

I will be doing my student teaching in (check one) Fall of 2023 Winter/Spring 2024

On a separate document, please provide the following information:

1. List the musical groups, activities, offices and leadership positions you have held during your college/university career. Emphasis will be placed on OCMEA involvement and service.
2. Why do you want to be a music educator?
3. Describe the goals that you have set for yourself and your students during your student teaching experience.
4. What do you feel are the most challenging issues facing the music educators of today?
5. Describe a time when you have faced adversity during your collegiate experience and how you overcame it.
6. Please describe how you plan to use the funds if awarded this scholarship. If there is financial need or extenuating circumstances, please explain here.

Please include with this digital application form:

1. Latest college/university transcript (download or scan)
2. A minimum of TWO letters of recommendation; one from a music education faculty member and the other from a dean, chairperson, or another faculty member from the music education department.
3. A letter from your university advisor certifying eligibility to student teach during the 2023-24 academic year.

Please email all information to Wendi Davis (davis@cory-rawson.org).

All items should be included as attachments or in one folder.

All of the above items MUST be present for your application to be considered.

Digital applications and accompanying items must be received prior to midnight on November 3rd. A confirmation email will be sent stating that your items have been received. Applicants MUST be current members of OCMEA (registered through NAFME).
